To a real sweet person who likes to talk as much as I do! (Remember Study Hall!!) Stay the way you are and you'll go a long way. Good luck in the future and especially good luck with boys!

Amigos always,
(I hope)

good friend of mine.
friend always Lisa S.

Ann,
we have been friends
for a very long time,
I know we have fights,
but they are always silly ones over something stupid! Stay the way you are, you'll go far.
I'll always remember you.

Friends always,

YESTERDAY . . .

*... we were so young and everything was new.
We all believed in Santa Claus — the Easter Bunny too.*

TODAY...

*... we laugh, we dance, we sing, we pray to God above.
We have our ups, we have our downs, we even fall in love.*

TOMOR-ROW...

*... isn't far away, It's closer than it seems.
Yesterday's gone; today is here,
and tomorrow's in our dreams.*

THE DEDICATIONS

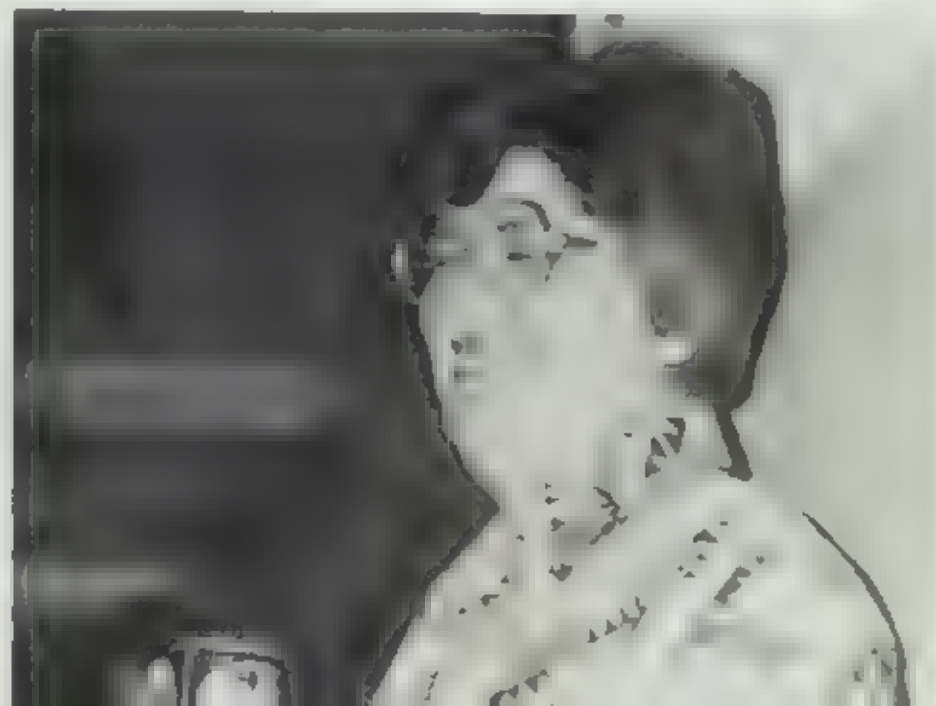

We the class of 1980 proudly dedicate this annual to Mrs. Linda Pruett, Mrs. Mary Smith, and Dr. V. Delane O'Rear, for their outstanding dedication to our school.

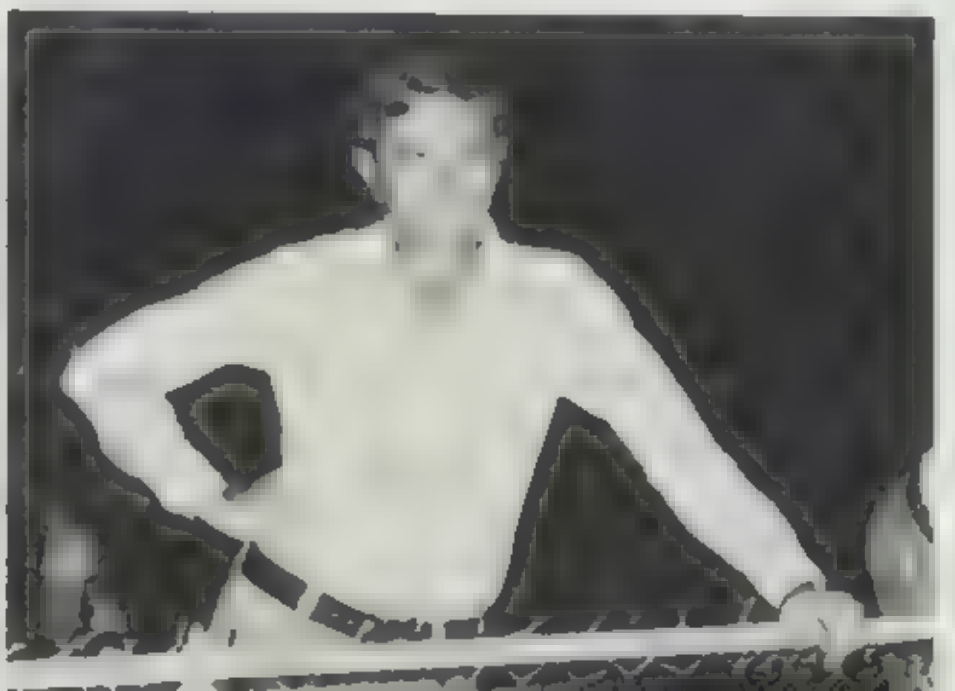

We would like to thank Dr. O'Rear for our new field house, and for being our teams physician.

We would like to thank Mrs. Pruett for all the help she gives to students in her classes and for being our cheerleader sponsor.

We would also like to thank Mrs. Smith for all her dedication in the making of this annual and for the fine job she does in her English classes

OF 1980

*We learned the need to write and read the things we did not know.
Now we all find we leave behind the place we learned to grow.*

*So on the day that we must say
"So long" to all our friends,
We'll say good-bye and probably cry,
then start to learn again.*

To the graduating seniors of 1980:

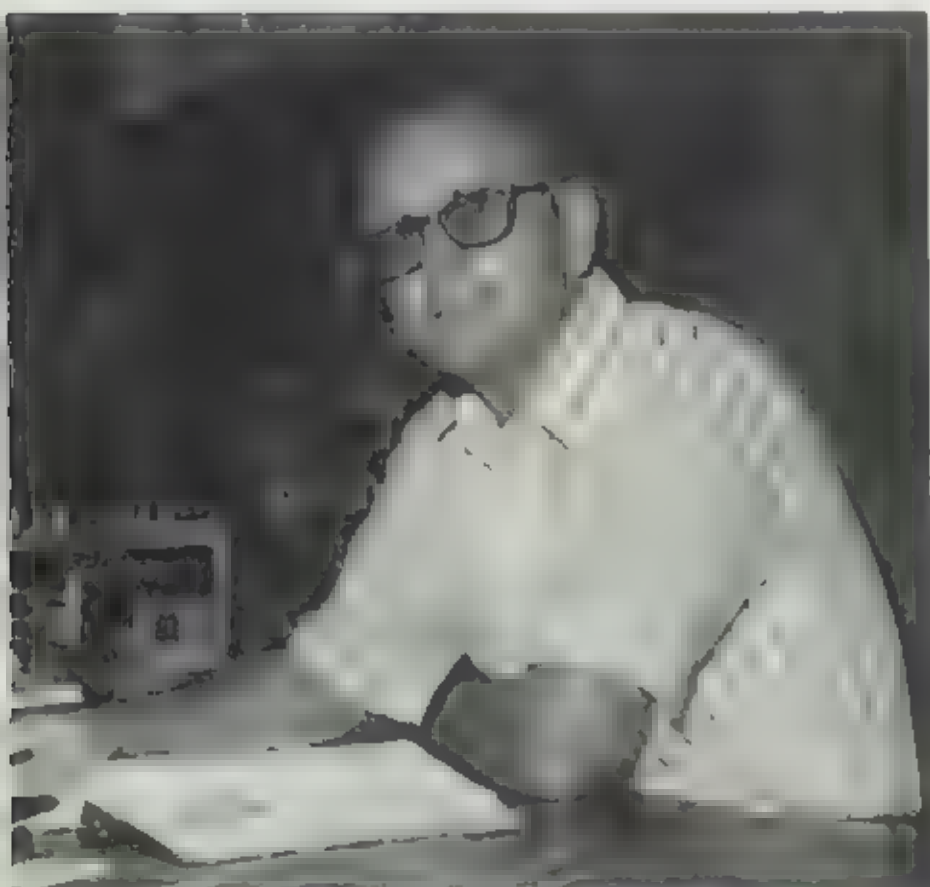

Everyone is his own most important teacher. He is the only one who knows what he really accepts and what he really wants

Since you are your own most important teacher, try to do the best you can for yourself. During the past twelve years, you have had many teachers, all of whom have tried to impress upon you the necessity and importance of study, hard work, diligence, and perseverance. All of these things are of utmost importance to the development of the essential of character, honesty, sincerity, integrity, and trust. It is in each of these areas that I hope each of you has prospered and grown the most during your high school experiences. Remember that you are often being examined when you have no idea of it. Life gives the final examination — the one that really counts. It is my prayer that your forthcoming graduation be the stepping stone that propels each of you to a challenging, exciting, and rewarding future in your new life.

Benny Rowe
Principal

I would like to take this opportunity to thank the students for making adjustments to exercises and new experiences which they have encountered this year. Let me urge each student and faculty member to work together in order to have another great year at Curry High

James Hubbert
Assistant Principal

We sincerely hope that we have presented challenges here at Curry High School that will help prepare our students for challenges in the future.
